At Least Six Such Affairs Being Held in New York This Week-end.

DANCE AT COLONY CLUB

Christmas Bubble Book Party Interesting Prominent Society Members.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—As usual, Saturday will be the busiest day of the week for debutantes, no fewer than half a dozen entertainments of one kind or another being on the social calendar in their behalf.

Mrs. Donn Barber will entertain a luncheon party at the Colony Club for her daughter, Miss Betty Barber, and later in the day Mrs. Harris Fahnestock will give a reception at her home, 15 East Sixty-sixth street, for Miss Georgianna Lawrence Wells, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Wilson Wells.

Tonight Mrs. Wells gave a dinner at the Colony Club for her daughter, after taking her guests to the first of the junior assemblies at the Ritz.

Also in the afternoon Dr. and Mrs. William Adams Brown had a reception at their home, 49 East Eighty-first street, for Mr. and Mrs. William Adams Brown, Jr., the latter before her marriage a daughter of Benjamin Ives Gilman, of Boston. The couple were recently married, and will make their home in New York.

Dance at Colony Club.

Tomorrow night Mrs. Arthur Murray Dodge will give a dance at the Colony Club for her eldest granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Lee Dodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray W. Dodge.

Many prominent leaders of the smart set are deeply interested in the Christmas Bubble Book party, which will be held under the auspices of the New York Community Service on Saturday morning, December 12, at the Ritz Theatre, under distinguished patronage.

The first of the Little Dances organized by Mrs. James T. Terry will be held tomorrow evening at Delmonico's and will be largely attended by members of the younger married sets.

Mrs. and Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte entertained at dinner last night in the Ritz Carlton for the Countess De Molke-Huitfeldt, who will start for Europe tomorrow.

Reception for Miss Ferriday.

Mrs. Henry McKee Ferriday, of 31 East Fifth street, will give a reception on the afternoon of December 10 to introduce her daughter, Miss Carolyn Woolsey Ferriday, who is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgerton L. Winthrop, of 109 East Ninety-first street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Muriel Winthrop, to Mr. Richard B. Boardman, of Boston. Miss Winthrop is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hecksher, and a niece of Mrs. George B. McCallan.

Another engagement of interest to upper Fifth avenue is that of Miss Elizabeth Billard to Ambrose Ellis Chambers, of this city, whose sister is the wife of young William M. Fleitman. Miss Billard is a daughter of Mrs. Isaac William Chick, 347 Beacon street, and made her debut in the Boston smart set last year.

Plainfield Girl to Wed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Endress, of Plainfield, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Wilhelmine Louise Endress, to Alvin Maurice Hall, son of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Hall, of Clairborne, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Endress, of Plainfield, N. J., and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Walworth entertained at supper and dancing last evening at the Palais Royal. Mrs. Walworth will be remembered as Miss Edith Gould, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele and Mr. and Mrs. Devereaux Milburn will start for Europe in April and remain abroad for the international polo tournament in June at Hurlingham.

Capital Men to Fish at Kahweambejemogawog

Kahweambejemogawog. That means "Lake of Many Sounds," and it is located in Ontario, Canada. On the shores of Lake Kahweam, seven Washington business men will establish a vacation camp next summer. Those comprising the party are Henry T. Offendering, Charles F. Sudworth, Lewis M. Thayer, Dr. John F. Sharp, A. Rosseter, Charles F. Crane and B. M. Bridge.

The party will leave Washington July 11 and camp on the tongue-defying lake's shore, about forty miles from Dorset and 400 miles north of Toronto. Indian guides, canoes, guns, and fishing rods will be accessories to the vacation. Some of the camping party are familiar with the lake region.

"Creation" Performance Free.

"Creation," a motion picture play, explaining the plan of God toward man as set forth in an interpretation of the Scriptures, will be shown at Pythian Temple tomorrow night at 7:45 o'clock. The play is intended to bear out the theory that "millions now living will never die." No collection will be taken.

Secretary Meredith will return to Washington today from Chicago, where he went to attend a meeting of the commissioners of agriculture.

MISS ADELINE OXNARD JOINS RANKS OF BUDS.

One of the prettiest and most attractive of the debutantes made her first formal bow to society yesterday afternoon, when Miss Adeline Oxnard was introduced to society by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Oxnard, at a tea at their residence in K street.

The house was charmingly decorated for the "bud" with great clusters of American Beauty roses, blended with the buds of bouquets sent Miss Oxnard by her friends.

Mrs. Oxnard and her daughter received in the large drawing room, the former wearing a smart afternoon gown of black chiffon tulle, draped with velvet, while the debutante wore white silver cloth, draped with silver lace and tulle, with a French beaded motif appearing on the bodice. Her bouquet was a lovely cluster of Sweetheart roses.

In the dining room Mrs. Henry Krogstad, Mrs. Charles B. Gower, Mrs. Alexander Sharp, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. William Haywood, Mrs. H. Rosier Dulany, Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, Mrs. Cary T. Grayson and Mrs. Benjamin Hellen in turn presided at the table, and the other guests included Miss Eugenie Pichon, the members of the house party of young school friends of the debutante, former classmates at St. Timothy's School, which include Miss Elizabeth Scott, of Richmond; Miss Ann Dibblee, of California; Miss Anne Dulany, of Virginia; Miss Ranellet, of Boston, and Miss Marion Hunter, of Providence. The other assistants included Miss Eleanor Story, Miss Anne Hight, Miss Eleanor Davenport Wheeler, Miss Mary Louise Johnson, Miss Ann Wickes Craven, Miss May Taylor and Miss Edith Bacon, all debutantes of the season.

Following the tea Mr. and Mrs. Oxnard entertained the debutantes and house guests at a dinner, followed by a reception at the National in compliment to their daughter, and tonight they will be hosts for about a hundred members of the debutante set at a dance at their K street residence, given for Miss Oxnard and her house party.

Tuesday, December 28, Mr. and Mrs. Oxnard will be hosts at a ball at Rauscher's for Miss Adeline Oxnard, which will be one of the most important events of the holiday season.

Mrs. Horace G. Macfarland entertained about twenty guests at dinner last evening in compliment to the Minister of Ecuador and Mme. Rafael Ellias and L. A. Penaherrera, attaché of the legation of Ecuador, and Mme. Penaherrera.

The dinner was given at the Willard Hotel and later in the evening Mrs. Macfarland took her guests to the navy officers' ball.
